

Europe and Eurasia

A family in a temporary shelter in Georgia.

Rebuilding the infrastructure in Serbia.

An HIV awareness poster contest in Ukraine.

Children painting a mural in Montenegro.

International Relief & Development (IRD) began our 10 years of relief and development experience with a program to support internally displaced populations in Georgia. Since then, IRD has worked in countries across the Europe and Eurasia region with a multi-sectoral approach, becoming a specialist in working in conflict and post-conflict environments. Starting in 1999, when IRD was one of the only international NGOs to run programs in Serbia during the Milosevic regime, we have taken on the challenge of working in some of the most complex and difficult places. Our programs are aimed at improving the quality of life for vulnerable groups, including displaced persons, refugees, and others. Together with local communities in six European and Eurasian countries, we operate programs to expand healthcare, increase economic opportunities, rebuild infrastructure damaged by conflict or neglect, and accelerate agricultural development, as well as responding to emergency needs such as Avian Influenza and mining accidents.